

1. Where should children be when parents are doing farm work?

2. What is the safety concern in the photo below?

3. What should be removed from equipment when not in use?

4. What is a safer option to the play structure below?

5. Why should young children be kept away from grain wagons, bins and silos?

6. What is the safety concern in the photo below?

7. What is missing in this play area?

8. What should be considered when storing farm equipment if young children are present on the farm?

9. Why would this be a good place for a child to learn about plants and farming?

10. These buckets were left in the yard after the project was completed. Where should they have been put?

11. What should be between this farm pond and the house?

Image Source: freepik.com

12. What is the hazard pictured and how can it be addressed?

1. What is the hazard of this snow-covered manure pit for young workers?

2. What should you do before you assign a task to a youth?

3. What is the most important safety device for ATVs shown in the picture below?

4. What is this girl missing to safely perform this job?

5. What safety feature is missing on this tractor?

6. What is happening in the image below that should be done before a youth starts a new task?

7. At what age can a youth be hired to legally operate the equipment below?

8. If hiring young farm workers, which regulations do you need to comply with?

9. What should the girl pictured be wearing to work outdoors?

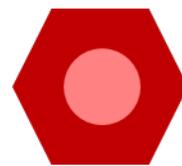

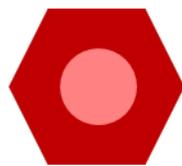

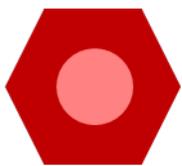

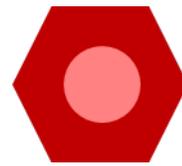

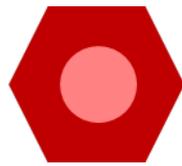

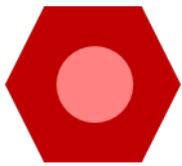

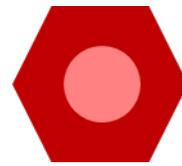

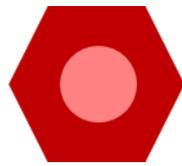

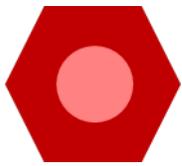

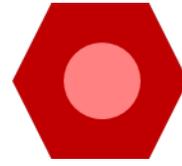

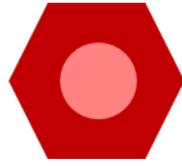

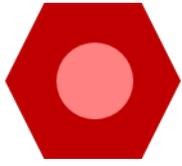

10. How do teen workers differ from adults?

11. How many times should a youth demonstrate a task before performing it solo?

12. How old should a youth be before using the equipment in the photo below?

1. What should this boy do when he leaves the petting area?

2. When working on the farm, why is it important for adults to model safe behaviors?

3. What is the problem with the bottle of chemicals below?

Image Source: freepik.com

4. Whether children are working or playing, what do they all need?

5. What should both of these riders do before starting this vehicle?

6. How old should a child/youth be to safely operate this vehicle?

7. Above what decibel level is the PPE pictured below needed?

8. What is PPE and why is it used?

9. What is the hazard is pictured below?

10. What are signs of heat exhaustion?

11. What safety concern is illustrated by this picture?

12. Who should check a work area for hazards and address them?

| | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1. If a rooster lays an egg on the peak of a barn roof, will it roll off to the left or the right? | 2. Why did the pig dump her boyfriend? | 3. Why did the police arrest the turkey? |
| 4. Why did the scarecrow win the Nobel Prize? | 5. What do you call a cow without legs? | 6. Did you hear about the magic tractor? |
| 7. What is a potato's least favorite day of the week? | 8. Why were the baby strawberries crying? | 9. What do you call a sleeping bull? |
| 10. What is a farmer's favorite Bruce Springsteen song? | 11. What did the girl mushroom say to the boy mushroom? | 12. What did the mama horse say to her baby? |

